

Cockroach Management

As nocturnal creatures, cockroaches usually hide out of sight during the day and become active during night times. There are about 30 cockroach species out of 4,600 that are associated with human habitats.

Many cockroaches prefer warm, humid, and dark environments. Cockroaches are among the most primitive living winged insects, appearing today that are more than 320 million years old.

Forth the inspection of site we will choose the method treatment.

Facts about Cockroaches

- A Cockroach can live for week without its head.
- A Cockroach can hold its breath for 40 minutes.
- They can run up to three miles in an hour.
- World's largest cockroach is six inches long.
- Cockroaches can survive anything, even a nuclear explosion.
- They survive without head for a week.
- Cockroach infestation can trigger allergies and asthma.
- Cockroach can live without food for one month. And without water for a week.

Two to three cockroaches images in right side of the write up

